

Alliance for Workers' Liberty Contributions assessment form

October 2009

Name ..... AWL branch ..... Date .....

Please fill in this form and return it to the office. You are asked to pay:

Contributions in line with your available income:

- £10 a month if your take-home pay is £800 per month (equivalent of minimum wage for 35 hours a week, with standard income tax rate), or if you are a university student
- an extra £10 a month for each £100 of monthly take-home pay above £800
- £5 a month if below minimum wage rate; £2.50 per month if unwaged plus sales money for a regular "quota" of sales of Solidarity. Usual quota: £10 a month (about six sales of each paper). Send in sales money above that via your AWL branch.

A. Basic minimum monthly contribution (£10; or £5 if below minimum wage; or £2.50 if unwaged)
B. Basic sales money (usually £10 per month)
C. Average take-home pay per month
D. Deduct £800 plus £300 for each dependant (£150 for dependants for whom you share responsibility with another person who has a full time wage)
E. Take-home pay less deductions (C minus D)
F. Ten per cent of take-home pay less deductions (10% of E)
G. Voluntary extra contribution (we expect members without dependants, or on incomes above the median - £1800 a month take-home - to pay a bit extra)
H. Total due per month (A plus B plus F plus G)

Amount of your standing order: £ ..... per month

If you feel you have special circumstances and cannot pay the normal rate, please indicate the circumstances overleaf.
