

Alliance for Workers' Liberty

Re-registration July 2009

"The Alliance for Workers' Liberty aims to create an organisation of activists which can convince, mobilise and lead the working class to fight for workers' liberty. To be effective, our organisation must be democratic; geared to the maximum clarity of politics; and able to respond promptly to events and opportunities with all its strength, through disciplined implementation of the decisions of the elected and accountable committees which provide political leadership". – From the preamble to the constitution of the Alliance for Workers' Liberty.

In our membership agreement form, we ask new activists to respond to the questions below. In this "re-registration", decided by AWL conference 2009, we are asking all activists and sympathisers to review their activity. We hope you will agree to increase your activity because of the increased demands on us in the crisis. If however you feel unwilling or unable to do what we ask of new activists, we ask you to support AWL as a sympathiser.

- Will you be politically active in a regular, consistent way?

a) Regular specifically AWL activities (paper sales, visiting contacts, educationals):

b) Regular broader activities in which you will promote AWL ideas and literature:

.....

- Will you attend regular meetings of your local AWL branch? These take place:

.....

- If you have difficulties attending AWL branch (because you live a distance from an established branch, or because of shifts, etc.), what arrangements will you make for regular communication with an AWL organiser?

.....

- Do you pay regular dues and sales money? Have you reviewed your regular payments in the light of the increased demands on AWL in the crisis?

.....

- Will you take on an organising role within AWL? (This may be as simple as, e.g. Taking the responsibility for organising a particular regular paper sale or stall).

- What other contributions will you make to AWL activity, drawing on special skills, talents, or connections that you have?
