ALL THE RAGE

A CELEBRATION OF WOMEN IN CLASS STRUGGLE

SOCIALIST FEMINIST CONFERENCE - HOSTED BY WOMEN IN WORKERS' LIBERTY

SATURDAY 28 FEBRUARY · UCL

Women have never enjoyed equality – in pay, politics or society. Now, to pay for capitalism's crisis, we have been pushed back further, suffering disproportionately from cuts to jobs, health and welfare, and the growing strength of the reactionary right.

But women are fighting. From migrant workers getting organised in Britain to sisters building a women's movement to fight sexual violence in India; from women in intense class struggle in Greece to workers and community activists fighting to save public services in Britain. Around the world women are building on our rage to fight back with ideas, courage and creativity.

Women in Workers' Liberty are organising this conference to celebrate and learn from women's struggles in Britain and around the world, and consider how socialist feminist ideas can make a difference.
