

Alliance for Workers' Liberty

Membership agreement form

"The Alliance for Workers' Liberty aims to create an organisation of activists which can convince, mobilise and lead the working class to fight for workers' liberty. To be effective, our organisation must be democratic; geared to the maximum clarity of politics; and able to respond promptly to events and opportunities with all its strength, through disciplined implementation of the decisions of the elected and accountable committees which provide political leadership". - From the preamble to the constitution of the Alliance for Workers' Liberty.

Welcome! The Alliance for Workers' Liberty is not a sect or a conspiracy. If you want to put consistent time and energy into fighting for solidarity and workers' liberty, and are willing to put effort into studying and discussing socialist ideas, then it is easy to join.

I want to become a member of the Alliance for Workers' Liberty. I agree:

- To be politically active in a regular, consistent way

a) Regular specifically AWL activities (paper sales, visiting contacts, educational):

.....

b) Regular broader activities in which you will promote AWL ideas and literature:

.....
.....

- To attend regular meetings of your local AWL branch. These take place:

.....

- If you have difficulties attending AWL branch (because you live a distance from an established branch, or because of shifts, etc.), what arrangements will you make for regular communication with an AWL organiser?

.....

- To pay regular dues and sales money (see standing order form overleaf)

.....

- Will you take on an organising role within AWL? (This may be as simple as, e.g. Taking the responsibility for organising a particular regular paper sale or stall).

- What other contributions will you make to AWL activity, drawing on special skills, talents, or connections that you have?

.....
